

They Enjoy Camp Life in the Woods Beaver_Pond

TENNIS TOURNAMENTS ADD TO BAR HARBOR'S SOCIETY CALENDAR

Women's Singles at Swimming Club Attracted Large Galleries-Some Brilliant Playing.

Many Luncheons and Dinners During the Week-Pot and Kettle Club Inaugurates Luncheons.

First of Chamber Recital Series-Dansants for August Numerous and On Schedule.

Weir Mitchell.

Luncheon parties were given by Mrs. Sheffield Phelps and Mrs. R. Hall McCormick. The latter entertained at her cottage and the former at the Swimming Club. Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., gave a dinner dance at Eyrie, Seal Harbar. The Rockefellers have the Clark cottage, which they are occupying the third season. It is distinctive, being located on the highest point

Sylvian Noak, violin, and Alwin Schroeder, trast to gleaming white beaches and rocky buffs the long, level marshes of Hampton and Seabrook present pictures that are much appreciated by lovers of the pictures used. fourth August 19, with Mrs. Arthur Train. and the fifth August 26, with Mrs. A. Howard day afternoon she will give one with proday afternoon she will give one with pro-fessional dancers and later there will be one for the children of Bar Harbor and another for the grownups. Mrs. Green has set an innovation by introducing twenty-ton, a few miles northward, offers excite-

Efforts to revive interest in a horse show proved futile. At a special meeting of the directors of the Horse Show Association this week it was definitely decided there would seek this spot because they are not called where many of the best known people week it was definitely decided there would be no show, as suitable entries could not be upon Since the advent of the automobile the cottagers do not bring their fine

BAR HARBOR, Me., Aug. 2.—The social calendar of the past week offered much that was interesting. The usual run of entertainments was supplemented by the women's singles, which opened the tennis tournament at the Swimming Club on Monday and lasted until Thursday. The match attracted much attention and a large gailery was always in attendance.

Some of the playing was brilliant and keen and exacted much enthusiasm. The entries included Mrs. Harold Sands, Miss Katherine Force, Miss Edith Brown, Miss Augusta McCagg, Miss Mary Ostrander, Miss Louise Frith, Mrs. Henry Slack, Miss Margaret Weld, Miss Dorothea Fremont-smith and Miss Elizabeth Weld.

Many luncheons and dinners were given during the week. Among the dinner givers were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Train, Mr. and Mrs. William Lawrence Green, Mr. and Mrs. Some Michell.

Lancheon parties were given by Mrs.

Weir Mitchell.

Lancheon parties were given by Mrs.

NEW HAMPSHIRE COAST

Scant Twenty Miles of Seacoast Offer Sands, Rocky Bluffs and Marshes.

Quiet Life With Bathing, Shore

Quiet Life With Bathing, Shore tinctive, being located on the histest point and commands an extensive view.

Mr. Rockefeller is one of object question and it was partly from the township of Mount beserf at a meeting last week. It is the early township on the island where it is the early township on the island where the Merrimac and the Piscala of Mount Deserf at a meeting last week. Bath the proposition that the surface of the poly township on the island where it is the early township of Mount Deserf at a meeting last week. Bath Harbor was included until last season, when the ban was removed.

The Pot and Kettle Club has inaugurated Thurnday luncheone, when members of the west of the moth of the polyarity that it enjoys, has enjoyed for more plan a generation and richly deserves. Although glorious the measurement of the west of the moth of the members of the hotel on Friday weeking, July 25. The young neophe who managed the affair were the Misses Kath and the middle of August the annual swimming carning with the held on the New Mount Kineo House in do for the hotel on Friday weeking, July 25. The young neophe who managed the affair were the Misses Kath and the middle of August the form of the New Mount Kineo House in do for the hotel on Friday weeking, July 25. The young neophe who managed the affair were the Misses Kath and the middle of August the form of the New Mount Kineo House in do for the hotel on Friday weeking, July 25. The young neophe who managed the affair were the Misses Kath and the middle of August the form of the hotel on Friday weeking, July 26 for the hotel on Friday weeking, July 26 for the hotel on Friday weeking, July 28 for the hotel on Friday weeking, July 28 for the hotel on Friday weeking, July 28 for the weeks visit.

The Pot and Kettle Club has inaugurated through the hotel weeking and the poly and the poly and the middle of August the form of the hotel on Friday weeking, July 28 for the hotel on Friday weeking, July 28 for the hotel on Friday weeking, July 28 for the hotel on Friday turesque.

This scene serves as an introduction to the Granite State's brief but interesting to the Granite State's brief but interesting Mrs. William Lawrence Green has planned introduction. New Hampshire's coast really begins at Seabrook. Seabrook is a Several thes dansants are scheduled. Monthe Hamptons have been wont to journey for years to do thier trading. Bathing upon there to make a sustained effort at social gayety. Like Hampton Beach, Rye Beach is the summer time.

bile the cottagers do not bring their fine stables here.

Sir" Walter de Coursey Poultney of Baltimore is here again. "Sir" Walter is known to every cottager on account of his fastidious attire.

Mrs. John Jacob Astor entertained a few friends at luncheon at La Selva.

Mrs. Edwin Harkness has returned to New York after spending a few days here. The Herbert Lee Satterlees arrived here this week to occupy Great Head. They made the trip from New York on the Morgan yacht Corsair.

Like Hampton Beach, Rye Beach is sought by many New England and New York as soon as schools are closed for their summer sojourn, the men of the household spending their week ends there as well as selecting it as the scene of their annual vacation.

Wallis Sands, a splendid bit of beach between North Hampton and Portsmouth, and a little nearer to the latter than to the former, has great vogue as a bathing spot and again accentuates the wonderful diversity of the New Hampshire coast.

Portsmouth is a charming place, with the summer time. The roads that go through miles of wilderness are in good shape for the automobiles that come from every State and Canada. Garret Hobart, son of the late Vice-topendent Hobart, and family this week opened their log camp on Cupsuptis Lake. Prof. Neher of Princeton College, Prof. Neher of Princeton College, Prof. W. Cunningham of New York and F. S. Dickson and their families are at their camps on Rangeley Lake.

Among those atthe Rangeley Lake House, when the summer time.

this week to occupy Great Head. They made the trip from New York on the Morgan yacht Corsair.

Mrs. John Markee of Philadelphia, who has a cottage here, will go to Litchheld, Conn., for a part of August.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Thaw are spending the season at the Malvern.

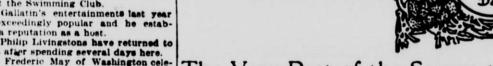

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Warner On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Warner Leeds was hostess at an auction party, followed by dancing. She entertained in honor of her house guests, Miss Agnes honor of her house guests, Miss Agnes and Miss Elvira Siltare of New York.

Mrs. Danken of New York on the Morgan yacht Corsair.

Among thoseat the Rangeley Lake House, the largest in this region, are the following New Yorkers: Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. A. J. Mulqueen and family, Mrs. Louisa Benziger and Miss Benziger and Miss Benziger, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Schaefer and three daughters, Mrs. Thomas H.

Bauchle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Pope, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Pope, Mr. and Mrs. E. Ledeliey, M. J. Mink, the Misses Kate, Marie and Margaret Chatillon, Dr. and Mrs. Charles D. Fowler of them belong to the New Hampshire coast, Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. Charles D. Fowler of them belong to the New Hampshire coast, Mrs. And Mrs. Charles D. Fowler of them belong to the New Hampshire coast, Mrs. And Mrs. Charles D. Fowler of them belong to the New Hampshire coast, Mrs. And Mrs. Charles D. Fowler of them belong to the New Hampshire coast, Mrs. And Mrs. Charles D. Fowler of them belong to the New Hampshire coast, Mrs. And Mrs. Charles D. Fowler of them belong to the New York recently Mrs. And Mrs. Charles F. Pope, Mrs. and Mrs. Ledeliev, Mrs. Thomas H.

Mrs. All Mrs. Charles F. Pope, Mrs. And Mrs. Charles F. Pope,

The Very Best of the Season to Be

Enjoyed Now at Moosehead Lake

Kineo, Me., Aug. 2.—This week marks the height of the season at the New Mount Kineo House and cottages and promises to continue on into late September. The majority of arrivals during the last week are stopping at the New Mount Kineo House and cottages and promises to continue on into late September. The majority of arrivals during the last week majority of arrivals during the past week to make a short stay at the decent flower and the last during the summer outling. They will stay throughout the season at the last majority of arrivals during the last week majority of arrivals during the August 36 with the annual regatta for the commodore's and Ferguson cups.

The first, big social event of the season here was an auction sale held in the music room of the New Mount Kineo House in aid of the heavital at Greenville Junction for a true weeks visit.

August 36 with the annual regatta for the commodore's and Miss Eigle B. Crawford of Fast, witnessed a very interesting exhibition of fancy swimming in the great pool by the professional instructor. Henry V. O'Day.

About the middle of August the annual swimming carnival will be held.

Cedar, Malaga, Star, Londoner, White and Seavey's islands—but White and Seavey's are one at low water, connected by a bar, while Smutty-nose, Cedar and that they are practically one.

MANY VISITORS ENJOY

Among the returning visitors are Mrs. William Gledhill of Paterson, N. J., and Miss Frederika W. Gledhill.

ton Hotel at Bretton Woods over last Sun-

purchased from the l'oland Spring Art

Mrs. C. F. Root of Waterbury, Conn., is visiting Mrs. A. H. Fenn at the Fenn

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wingate of New York,

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Henry of Seattle have

Informal Frolics Gladden the Days for the Visitors at Poland Spring

younger set.

ANY VISITORS ENJOY

LOVELY RANGELEY REGION

RANGELEY, Me., Aug. 3.—This chain of lakes, some 2 mm feet, above the set.

Poland Spring and serve to set off the golf tournaments and family of Philadelphia, who came on July 30; J. G. Lindsey and family of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs.

George A. Morrison, Jr., and George A. Morlison, Jr., another for the grownups. Mrs. Green has set an innovation by introducing twenty-five minute turkey trots during the morning concerts. She has further planned two dinner dances, the dates of which are Augient at 1 and 22. Some of the conservatives are gasping at Mrs. Green's temerity, but her audiences do not suffer in consequence.

Efforts to revive interest in a horse show proved fulfle. At a special meeting of the golf tournance for minute turkey trots during the morning ton, a few miles northward, offers excitement enough.

The Boar's Heads contribute the rocky features of this famous shore line of New Hampshire. Bold cliffs and bluffs that in game she waters larger than in any other, and noted fishermen from many lands come here to cast the fly for trout an isalmon.

These lakes are surrounded by miles of the golf tournance and other sports of a more formal naments and other sports of a more fo The base running of Alfred Wells of Water-bury, Conn., should not be overlooked, however, nor the hitting of George L. Tompkins, the talented young Brooklyn Exhibition the painting entitled "Waiting for Supper," by William T. Robinson. staying at the Poland Spring House for the season, is high line fisherman for this week, having brought in a string of six fish re cently which weighed eleven pounds. Al-together this week he has secured fourteen bass totalling thirty-two pounds. Dr. H. Cottage. bass totalling thirty-two pounds. Dr. H.

C. Register of Philadelphia has also been fortunate.

Among the returning regular visitors are ex-Senator Joseph B. Foraker and family P. Tysen at the Poland Spring House on of Cincinnati, who came on August 1; Mr. Tuesday.

adelphia and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wood and Club, New Jersey, won a handsome cup in the golf tournament on the Oquoseoe Golf course this week with a score of

The winners of a handsome cup in the putting contest on Tuesday were Mrs. C. R. Adams of Philadelphia and Luther Wood Semi-Professional and Summer Resort Teams. Arrivals at the Cottages and Hotels - Entertainments and Plans for Coming Month.

HEIGHT OF GAY AND

Cottages All Filled and One Hotel Turns Away More

Local Interest In New Baseball Team-Games With

Than 200 Tourists In One Day.

DIVERSIFIED SEASON

week will mark the height of the season at this popular Maine watering place. In point of numbers the high water mark will probably be reached next Sunday, when more than ten thousand day visitors are expected. Cottages are filled for the first weeks in August. The attraction to many at this time is the annual meeting of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, which opened Friday. To thousands of others the early August bathing is the chief drawing card. No new developments have arisen in the struggle for Sunday baseball, but the newly organized ball team is making an excellent showing against semi-professional and summer resort teams which come this way.

J. Sullivan of the Springfield Republican has taken one of the Hawkes cottages on the Sea Wall for the rest of the season.

Mrs. All Statin, George Weisman, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Merkleson of New York are spending several weeks at the Goodall on the beach.

Mrs. Katherine Peck of Cortland, N. Y. and Mrs. Mrs. M. H. Kinney in Breakers-by-the-Sea.

Miss Alma Dahl of New York is spending the summer at the Florence on Saca avenue.

Mrs. Edith Whitford Smith of Chicago will occupy the Keays cottage on the Camp Ground for the next two months. Walter McBrayne, manager of the Colley House of Springfield, Mass., is now occupying the Munson bungalow.

Among the arrivals at the Elite Hotel during the past week are Charles Sher-

NOTABLE PLAYERS IN EKWANOK TOURNAMENT

Prominent Players and Variety of Trophies Arouse Unusual Interest.

Many August Entertairments Already Planned Some Recent Ar-

MANCHESTER - IN - THE - MOUNTAINS, Vt. Aug. 2.—Goining centres at Exwanok during the coming week when from North, South, East and West the lovers of the game assemble to battle for the First President's cup and a variety of other the Misses Templeton, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur the Misses Templeton, Mr. arthur the Misses Templeton, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur the Misses Templeton, Mr. ar and, owing to the prominent players par-ticipating, of interest the country over. Frank W. Harriman, Miss Harriman and The programme calls for a qualifying Miss Hitchcock.

round of eighteen holes to be played on Wednesday and thirty-two will qualify MRS CFORCE for the main trophy. A gold medal will be given for the lowest score on Wednesday and he that wins it must play close to page golf. On North transfer of the lowest score on Wednesday and he that wins it must play close to par golf. On Friday afternoon the best ball competition is open to those not participating in the semi-finals and there will be a medal handicap on Saturday morning for those not playing in residing in North and South Carolina comparison. rison, Sr. of New York, Mrs. H. Frank Crouch of Baltimore and Miss Eleanor Dieter, who is warmly welcomed by the

Edward P. Ricker, Jr., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Johnson of Spuyten Duyvil, N. Y., at the New Mount Washing-

the Equinox House this evening.

Putting contests, especially for ladies, have always been popular here and on Thursday Mrs. C. H. Pray of New York entertained the ladies of the cottage colony and many from the hotel in this Show and many New Yorkers and visitors from Philadelphia will be presented in the superstance of the club. The arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Geometrically and their daughter. Mr. Cornelia Vanderbilt, is expected this way and many from the hotel in this manner on her spacious lawn.

Robert T. Lincoln entertained the members of the Lincoln Foursome at diner and once more Baltimore, the we famous estate, will be the scene of mentertaining. on Friday evening.

Recent arrivals at the Equinox House the guest of honor and the principal speak the guest of honor and the guest of h include: Mr. and Mrs. F. Hamilton Davis and family, Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Kerr and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. F. Storm, Mr. and Mrs. John Mrs. F. F. Storm, Mr. and Mrs. John Mrs. Adolph E. Smylle, M. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph E. Smylie, Randolph Catlin, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. with a score of 11 fours.

The Hon. William E. Go Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Duryea and William to-day for Cuba, where he was represented Minister by President V.

INSURANCE COMMISSIONERS

Adams of Philadelphia and Luther Wood of Buffalo, with a score of 37.

August will find hundreds of persons enjoying canoeing, boating, fishing, tramping and camping in the Rangeley region of Maine.

Adams of Philadelphia and Luther Wood of Buffalo, with a score of 37.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Aug. 2.—At the present time the Insurance Commissioners of the United States are holding their annual conjunction of Maine.

GATHERED AT BURLINGTON His leaves at once for a European trip before leaves at tained at the Hotel Vermont and Van Ness House, and thirty-three States are represented, the largest number of States being represented that they have ever had. The Insurance Commissioners were entertained Tuesday and Thursday with automobile rides given by the local people.

Next week the Knights of Pythias has their State convention in Burlington w headquarters at the Hotel Vermont, and the same time the Health Officers Scho which includes all the health officers in State, will be held in Burlington. The tourist business has been very ANCHESTER - IN - THE - MOUNTAINS, Vt., the past week. A large number from 2.—Golfing centres at Ekwanok dur. New York city have been in Burlington ophies.

The field will be both large and fast Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Conract Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs.

EXPECTED AT ASHEVILLE

final matches. A social hour on the broad veranda will follow the completion of the final round Saturday afternoon, when players and gallery will find refreshment suited to their needs.

Mrs. Robert T. Lincoln will be promited by the second of the second of the second of the final round saturday afternoon, when players and gallery will find refreshment suited to their needs.

Mrs. Robert T. Lincoln will be promited by the second of Mrs. Robert T. Lincoln will be prominent among those entertaining during August. Hildene will be the scene of pleasant parties on Tuesday afternoons throughout the month.

Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Brown are entertaining a party of twenty at dinner at the Equinox House this evening.

Mrs. Robert T. Lincoln will be prominent among the scene of the several golf and tennis tournament which will be held through August at the Country Club.

A large dinner dance at the Country Club. A large dinner dance at the Country Club. Show and many New Yorkers and a second of the help the scene of the several golf and tennis tournament which will be held through August at the several golf and tennis tournament which will be held through August at the several golf and tennis tournament which will be held through August at the several golf and tennis tournament which will be held through August at the several golf and tennis tournament which will be held through August at the several golf and tennis tournament which will be held through August at the several golf and tennis tournament which will be held through August at the several golf and tennis tournament which will be held through August at the several golf and tennis tournament which will be held through August at the several golf and tennis tournament which will be held through August at the several golf and tennis tournament which will be held through August at the several golf and tennis tournament which will be held through August at the several golf and tennis tournament which will be held through August at the several golf and tennis tournament which will be present the several golf and tennis tournament which will be present the several golf and tennis tournament which will be present the several golf and tennis tournament which will be present the several golf and tennis tournament which will be present the several golf and tennis tournament which will be present the several golf and tennis tournament which will be present the several golf and tennis tournament which will

Gov. Locke Craig of North Carolina wa

The Hon. William E. Gonzales, who leaves appointed Minister by President Wilson, spent the week end at the Battery Park with his wife and daughter, and all left Monda-for their home in Columbia. Mrs. Gonzales